

Community Development Intern

Description

The Korean American Coalition-Los Angeles is a nonprofit organization established in 1983 to promote the civic and civil rights interests of the Korean American community.

We are looking for an extraordinary intern who is resourceful, detail oriented and a go getter. Above all else, you must write clearly and possess the mindset that your work contributes to creating positive change in the community. It's essential that applicants to this position have excellent communication skills, demonstrate creativity, and understand the importance of attending to even the smallest details.

Responsibilities

- Package proposals
- Writing (grants and proposals)
- Coordinate graphics layouts
- Manage projects

What You Will Gain

1. The experience of working for a non-profit that fights for the underdog and has been creating meaningful change in the Korean American community for over 34 years.
2. A rare opportunity to work with two real estate companies:
  - a. Sperry Commercial: Access to top Korean American commercial brokers who have huge hearts, vision, and mentorship ability.
  - b. Intentional Investments: alternative/indie real estate development company with a mission to transform communities through creative real estate development. Triple bottom line returns. Invaluable mentorship in vision setting, leadership, and business. Expansive network that includes access to day laborers from Home Depot to billionaire Angelenos.

Internship Details

This is an unpaid, part-time internship requiring a minimum commitment of 15 hours a week for 3 months. To be eligible, you must be enrolled in or have graduated from college. Although the internship is unpaid, we instead offer transportation stipends and will be more than happy to help you earn school credit. If you have any questions, you can email our Outreach Coordinator, Sophia at sophia@kacla.org.
